LETTER from the PRINCIPAL

"A mighty flame followeth a tiny spark." - Dante

You are about to move on to the next phase of the journey. As you do, ask yourself, "Where am I going?" All too often, individuals move on from one phase to the next without asking this simple question. If you look back at your four years at WHS and even your previous school years, think of all the memories, both good and bad and how they impacted you. Were you able to make a difference in your life, someone else's life or even your hometown? You have had the advantage of great teams, wonderful writers, strong academics, passionate dramatists and many other talented individuals within an arms reach for many years. Were you able to learn anything from them? Were you able to teach someone else a great lesson or share a wonderful idea? As I approached a milestone birthday this year, I asked the same questions of myself. Although positively reminiscent of the things I have done, I was not so impressed by the things I should have or could have done. There is always more. As you now move towards your dreams and your future, make sure you are able to impart wisdom, lend a hand or just be a friend so that the rewards of life, the true, non-financial rewards of life, continue to pay dividends long after you have moved on.

It has been my privilege to spend my first four years as a high school principal with the members of the Class of 2008. You have taught me many lessons and always made sure to rise to the occasion when asked. The future, although sometimes scary, is limitless. Within your ranks may be the next person who impacts the future of our state, nation or even the world. Make your mark! Build your foundations and stand firm on the knowledge you take from your time at WHS. Set lofty goals and always reach for the stars, for someday, they won't be so far away. I am proud of you and will miss you all! Be great!

- Mr. Tracy

YEARBOOK DEDICATION

The 2008 Hourglass Yearbook is dedicated to the Senior Class Advisors, Ms. Maureen O'Mara and Mrs. Tara Ettinger.

In addition to their work as class advisors, Ms. O'Mara is a truly devoted guidance counselor while Ms. Ettinger is a highly dedicated math teacher. Thanks to the help of these two outstanding individuals, the Class of 2008 has enjoyed great success over the past four years. The various events that have taken place during our time here at WHS would not have been made possible without the hard work and dedication of Ms. O'Mara and Mrs. Ettinger. Making calls, balancing budgets and working countless hours behind the scenes to ensure memorable experiences for all members of the Class of 2008, these two women have been there for us every step of the way. Due to the tremendous support from these two amazing class advisors, the entire Senior Class was able to have a truly wonderful time here at WHS.

To Ms. O'Mara and Ms. Ettinger,

The Class of 2008 truly appreciates your time and commitment. On behalf of the class, we would like to say thank you for everything you've done. You truly made our time at WHS a wonderful experience.

- The Class of 2008

The Class of 2008 has had great success and made great achievements throughout their four years at Wilmington High School.

Freshmen year of high school is usually nerve-racking for most, but the Class of 2008 hit the ground running. The year started out with class elections. Lou Cimaglia was elected as Class President; Kevin Carter, Vice President; Andrew Valente, Treasurer; and Lauren O'Brien, Secretary. Outside of Wilmington High School, George Bush was re-elected as President of the United States, the Red Sox won their first World Series in 86 years, and oil was 50 dollars a barrel. As the class became settled in their new surroundings they showed everyone that they meant business. With a little luck and some hard work, only good things were sure to come for the Class of 2008.

The sophomore year began with a great start. Everybody's favorite Class President, Lou Cimaglia was re-elected, as well as Secretary Lauren O'Brien. Sarah Turner was a great addition, taking over as the Treasurer, and Joe Foley stepped up as Vice President. The school witnessed some stellar athletic performances, including Vinny Papageorgiou who was back for another year as starting varsity keeper, as well as various other accomplishments in the arts, academics, and community service. Overall, the sophomore student body represented their class tremendously. Sophomores also made a name for their class in various other school events, with Tom Barry winning the title of Mr. WHS in the second annual Mr. and Ms. WHS competition. Other unforgettable events from the year included the Patriots defeating the Eagles in the Super Bowl, cementing their legacy as a dynasty and the nation's incredible support for the people of New Orleans following the devastation of Hurricane Katrina. As all this occurred around them, the class encountered several new experiences, including the infamous sophomore research paper, the arrival of the one and only Akshay Dave, and the taking of the MCAS (and this time it counted). Ultimately, it was a very successful year, and the class has once again proved to everyone how great the Class of 2008 could be.

The Class of 2008 kicked off their junior year anxiously awaiting many important events. With SAT's, college exploration, and the much anticipated Junior Prom upon them, the year was filled with hard but rewarding work. Being responsible and motivated juniors, they were undoubtedly up for the challenge. Tom Barry was elected as the new Vice President, and the returning officers were absolutely ecstatic in welcoming the new addition to the class officer family. Many fundraisers were planned, and the budget for the remaining two years was looking good. As prom season arrived, the officers had a great deal of planning and preparation to finish and could not have done it without the support and guidance of the advisors Ms. O'Mara and Mrs. Ettinger, as well as the help of the amazing prom committee. Needless to say, the Prom at the Tewksbury Country Club that late April was a tremendous success and was enjoyed by all who attended. With a great end to the Junior year, the Class of 2008 was excited for what would soon become their Senior year.

The 2007-2008 school year was certainly one to remember. Several varsity teams made it into state tournaments, including the soccer and basketball teams. However, it was this year's Varsity Boys Hockey team that rallied the school by going on to play at the TD Banknorth Garden for the state championship. James Ham and Jessi Crowley were crowned the new Mr. and Ms. WHS, and Tom Barry and Krista Murphy were named this year's Homecoming King and Queen. The Senior Class had many successful fundraisers, including the sales of pies, Superfan T-shirts, and chocolate roses. The Senior-Faculty Basketball Game and the Prom Fashion Show also helped to fund several senior events, including the Senior Prom held at the Westin Hotel in Waltham on Friday, May 9th. Outside the walls of Wilmington High School, John McCain received the Republican nomination for President while Hillary Clinton and Barack Obama dueled for the Democratic nomination, the Red Sox won the World Series, and the Patriots lost the Super Bowl in their bid for perfection. It was a truly memorable year and certainly one the Class of 2008 will never forget.

All in all, the Class of 2008 saw some incredible events inside and outside of school, and as each student leaves here in search of a new future, they shall all remember the wonderful time they shared at Wilmington High School.

JUNIOR PROM

Junior Prom - Friday, April 27, 2007. A wonderful, festive time where everyone was able to strut their stuff and look fabulous on the dance floor. The ladies and gentlemen of the Class of 2008 danced the night away at the Tewksbury Country Club, a familiar sight to most Wilmingtonites. With spectacular lighting, magnificent food, and an energetic DJ surrounding the guests with rhythmic tunes, the event was not only an enjoyable evening, but also an unforgettable experience for all who attended.

▲ Junior Prom Court:
Vincent Papageorgiou, Matthew Bibeau, Matthew Brooks, Ashley Taylor, William Crowley, Antar George, Kyle Lunt, Jennifer Paris, Sarah Turner, Stocey Hoang, Amando Ciulla, ond Kristen O'Brien

▲ The entrance hall was pocked with students waiting to enter with their dates and friends long after the doors first opened.

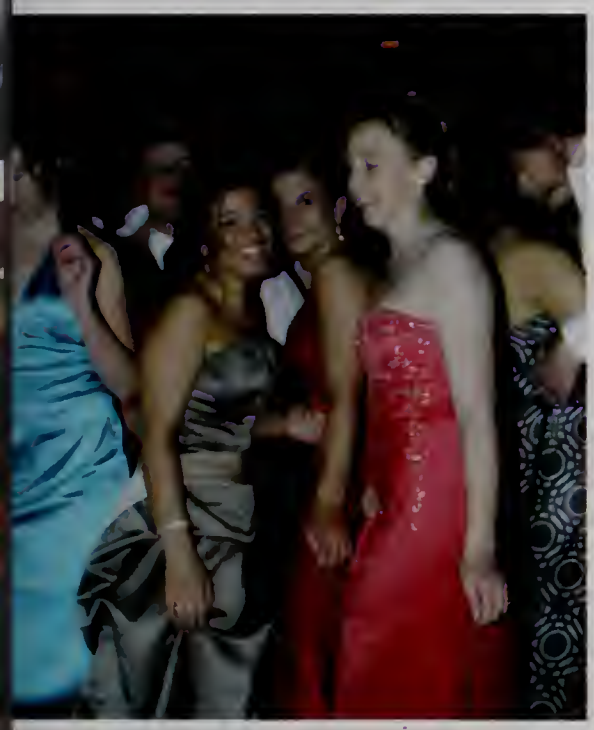
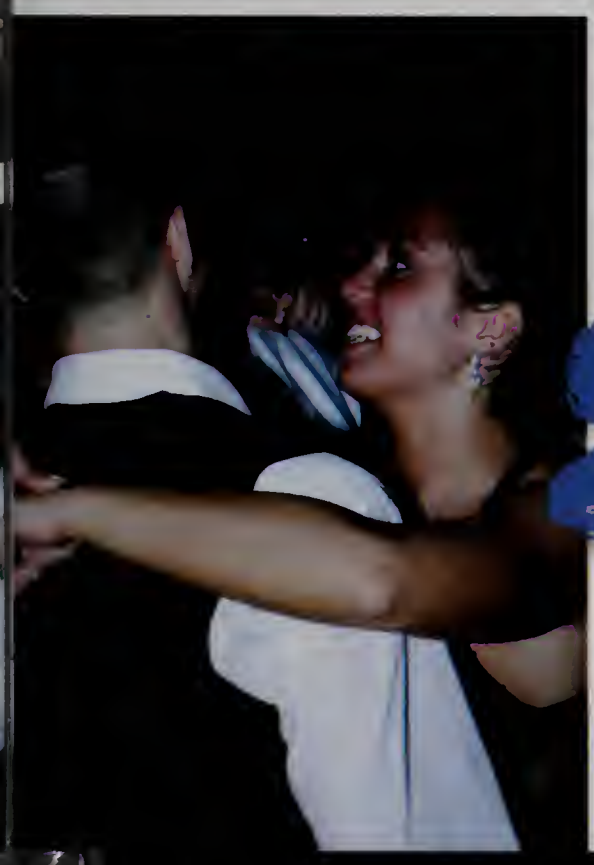
Filled with guests, the Tewksbury Country Club served as the perfect place to host the Junior Prom. Here, the prom started out with friends and couples mingling and showing off their formal wear.



Most students came with dates but that didn't stop them from dancing with their friends for most of the night.

Friends enjoyed posing for pictures with their peers. Cameras were a popular accessory for the evening.



Couples danced all night to both fast and slow songs. As long as they were together, they were happy.

HOMECOMING

Welcoming students back to another year and welcoming in the Class of 2011, the annual Wilmington High School Homecoming Dance was held on Friday, October 12, 2007, marking the end of yet another exciting Spirit Week. The dance, held in the glamorous WHS gymnasium, was a grand time for all Homecomers. Requesting songs and mingling with alumni, students had a memorable time dancing shoeless as the Red Sox defeated the Yankees in an important playoff game.

Groups of friends danced together all night long, as students hit the dance floor when their requested songs were played. ▶

◀ Friends danced together throughout the evening, celebrating the close to yet another successful WHS Spirit Week.

◀ Members of the Homecoming Court received corsages as they went up to take their place with the king and queen.

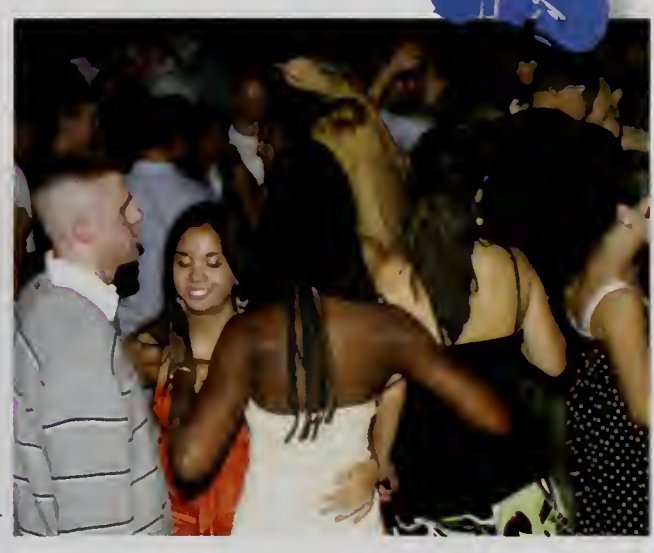
The dance was crowded up through the very last song. No one wanted the fun to end! ▶



SPIRIT WEEK

Starting off Spirit Week this year was our traditional Class Day, where each grade dressed to a particular theme. The freshmen enjoyed dressing in style for their formal theme while the sophomores got "goofy" as cartoon characters. Causing many teachers' heads to turn, juniors had a blast dressing zany for their wacky-tacky theme. But no one can deny that the members of the Class of 2008 went all out this year for their costume themed day, dressing in everything the mind could imagine from scuba divers to Pop Tarts to Crayola crayons.

Juniors show off their colorful tastes in clothing for their Wacky-Tacky theme. ▶

◀ Whether dressed as the clergy or a crayon, senior creativity is seen in the range of costumes worn throughout the day.

SPIRIT WEEK

The second theme of this year's Spirit Week was the classic Army Day. Shades of green, brown, and gray were paraded by most while others dressed in naval blue uniforms. Whether they were clothed ready to fight in the war or dressed rather to protest it, everyone went all out for this day's theme. Unfortunately, the camouflage colors were not able to hide these students from the teachers or their studies.

Members of the student body wore shades of olive drab to show off their military spirit.

Though the leaves may help hid most soldiers this disguise does little to hide Bobby Folk in our hallways.

Friends pose together as their camouflage color help them blend in with their WHS surroundings.

Two sides of our generation's war get along fine side-by-side at WHS.

Army Day

It is said that the strangest bonds are formed during times of war, yet friendships at WHS are just as close.

Ladies Liberty, Melanie Pickett and Lorena Prinzivalli, salute the troops of WHS in their dazzling dresses.

SPIRIT WEEK

At first this year, Team Sports Day was the third day celebrated in this year's Spirit Week. For this day, a variety of sports and teams were properly represented, from football to surfing to mini golf. Professional team jerseys from the Red Sox, Patriots and Celtics could be seen (and a few brave souls wore Yankees attire). Even mythical sports were seen as Quidditch players roamed the hallways. Although it the first time this theme had been presented, Teams Sports Day was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

Fans of all sports show support for their favorite teams in the hallways. ►

Even sports fans from other countries are celebrated. ¡Taro! ▼

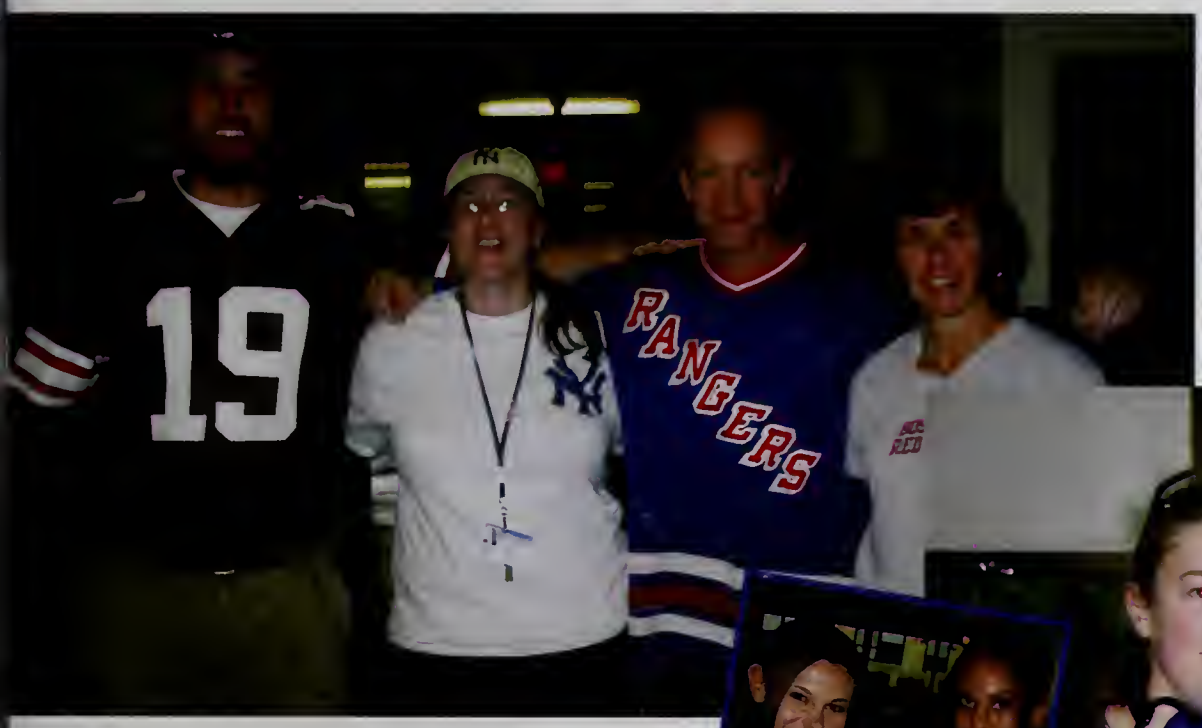
Red Sox fans, like Ms. Thomas and Tim Perkins pictured here, dressed in red and blu as a sign of love and support for the 2007 World Series Champs. ◄

Team Sports Day

Mini-golf has always been a loved game. Sasha Reilly and Krista Murphy show their love for the sport by bringing their golf bags with them from class to class. Four!



"Cool Runnings" fans are representing their favorite sport...bob sledding! With all the snow we had this winter, they have plenty of time to practice for the next Winter Olympics.

SPIRIT WEEK

On the final day of Spirit Week, the whole school decked out in blue and white, the proud colors of Wilmington. In the grand tradition of Blue and White Day, students donned wigs and boas, coated themselves with face paint and glitter, and displayed their school spirit proudly from class to class. Closing out the day was the big pep rally where cheerleaders encouraged everyone to shout out their spirit for WHS. This year's pep rally included some of the week's most spirited students competing in a variety of games and the ever-loved Seniors vs. Underclass tug-of-war battle.

Seniors went up against the underclass in a suspenseful match of tug-of-war. In the end, the Class of 2008 was victorious! ▶

Plastic horns were a common sight at the pep rally, allowing students to add more noise to the cheer-filled gymnasium. ▼

▲ Decked out in face paint, beads, ribbons, wigs, and other miscellaneous blue and whi accessories, WHS students showed amazing school spirit.

MR. and MS. WHS

Guys and gals competed on Thursday, November 15, 2007 for the titles of Mr. & Ms. WHS. The competition, though tough, was friendly as competitors acted out skits together and offered helping hands backstage. While all of the contestants were talented and spirited, whether it be in dancing or in wrestling a wildcat, only two students went home with the prize. In the end James Ham and Jessi Crowley were crowned this year's Mr. and Ms. WHS!

◀ Contestants had to compete in four categori for this year's competition, including a talent segment. Here Joe Foley sings to the crowd.

Hosts Tom Barry and Shannon Jones interviewed each contestant on a variety of topics. ▶

◀ Members of the audience enjoyed all the wonderful performances of the night. Singing, rapping, juggling and more were loved by all.

FOOTLOOSE

Kicking off the winter season, the WHS Drama Club presented this year's musical, Footloose. Students of all grades participated in this performance with catchy tunes and lively dance steps. The rhythm easily rallied the audience into cheering along as spectators of all ages savored WHS's outstanding display of musical and acting talent. The hardworking members of the cast and crew put on two exhilarating performances on Friday, November 30th, and Saturday, December 1st. Let's hear it for the boy!

PROM FASHION

Prom fever is in the air at the start of '08 as young men and women come together in February to put on this year's Prom Fashion Show. Walking down the catwalk were girls sporting the new trends for prom dresses in addition to must-have accessories and hair-do's. The guys had their own share of the limelight that evening, decked out in their slick tuxedos. The Prom Fashion Show certainly did its job of fueling the fire for this year's prom fever.

SENIORS vs. VOLLEYBALL

The Senior vs. Staff Volleyball Game is a wonderful chance for students to beat the faculty in a fair fight on school grounds and in front of all their peers, no less! Alas, the students were the ones to feel the sting of loss as the faculty was able to defeat them...again. Yet the night was not a waste to any, as the tense atmosphere of the game and the mishaps from both teams provided entertainment for all who attended.

FACULTY

◀ The female faculty and students faced off, earning points for their teams. Although they may not jump as high or be as tall as the guys, the ladies still have game!

BASKETBALL

The Senior vs. Staff Basketball Game was a great opportunity for the seniors to get payback against the teachers for their foiled attempt at victory a few months prior in the volleyball game. Despite the students' impressive jumping and dunking, the giants of the WHS faculty triumphed in the end. While the Senior Boys lost out 93-74, the Senior Girls were able to win with a 23-13 victory. Although the faculty won when the scores were combined, the night was still quite enjoyable. Perhaps Class of 2009 will have better luck next year.

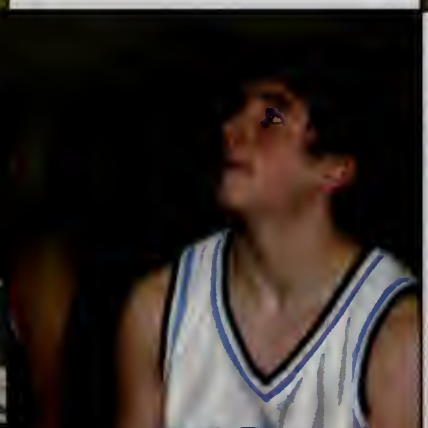
VARSITY



SPORTS

It was another successful year for the Wilmington High School Varsity Football Team. The Wildcats achieved a record of 9-2, which was good enough for a share of the Cape Ann League title. Ernie Mello had a phenomenal year at tailback for Wilmington, amassing 29 touchdowns and about 1,000 yards rushing. Fullback Corey Groves was second on the team in rushing and played spectacularly from the linebacker position. Led by the Mello-Groves tandem and the remaining captains Evan Borseti and Kyle Moon, the Wildcats won two extraordinary league games against Pentucket and North Andover in the final two home games of the season. It was truly a memorable season for the Wildcats.

The cheerleaders had a great season having placed 1st in this year's Cape Ann League competition. They also placed 1st at Regionals, but unfortunately fell short to Burlington, placing 2nd in the State Tournament. Captains Brittani Winn, Kim Ciampa, Katelyn Gallant, and Kayla Ward and the rest of the cheerleading squad, led by Coach Nancy Sullivan, all worked very hard this year.

The Wilmington Boys Varsity Soccer Team had a very successful season. With a record of 12-2-4, the team made it to the State Tournament. There were 12 seniors this year, led by captains Matt Figueirido, Vinny Papageorgiou, and JJ Polcari. The team also made history this year, beating Masco 2-1 for the first time. Along with Masco, the boys were named co-champions of the Cape Ann League.

After losing 9 strong players from last year, the Girls Varsity Soccer Team knew they had to step it up, and that is just what they did. Led by captains Leah Potcner and Katie Cole, the team qualified for the State Tournament. The soccer team impressed many people this year, including their own coach.

Despite what the record says, the Wilmington Varsity Field Hockey team had a good year. The team worked extremely hard in practice every day after school. It may appear to have been a disappointing season, but the girls know how hard each and every player worked. Led by captains Sasha Reilly and Rachel Haggerty, the team won a sportsmanship award. Regardless of the record, this year's team had a very successful season.

The 2007 Varsity Golf Team had a great season, in spite of what the record says. Of course 2-9-1 is not the record one would like to see, but it doesn't necessarily tell the whole story. It doesn't say how they tied a respectable team or say that they fell to another team by a single point, and it certainly doesn't account for the numerous times Wilmington barely edged out in the final decisions. With eleven young men and one young woman who loved to play the game and with the excellent supervision of Coach Steve Lynch, the team progressed over the course of the season, and despite the losing record, Wilmington was nominated for the Sportsmanship Award in the Cape Ann League.

The team finished the season with a 6-6 record, earning 8th place at the Cape Ann League Championship meet and 17th place at the State Championship meet. Junior Natalie Russo ended a strong season by qualifying for the All-league team after a 10th place finish at the Cape Ann League Championship. Megan Keane was also the only senior to lead the team this year.

This fall, the Wilmington High School Varsity Volleyball Team beat their record from last year. The team was led by captains Tiffanie Davis and Kristen Browne along with the assistance of Coach Mark Staffier. The team had an enjoyable season and are already looking forward to improving for next year.

Steve Sughrue took 2nd and Kenny Joyce took 1st. Sughrue and Joyce also took 1st and 2nd in States. The team was led by captains Kenny Joyce, Jon Tranfaglia, Billy Liston, and Steve Sughrue.

The Boys Varsity Basketball team won their seventh consecutive Cape Ann League Title this year. They ended up with a record of 18-2 for the regular season. They beat Minutemen Tech and Bishop Fenwick in the tournament before losing to Watertown in the Eastern Mass North Finals at the Tsongas Arena. Wilmington was led by tri-captains Matt Bibeau, Zack Fahey, and Evan Borseti. Zack Fahey was the MVP of the league and Matt Bibeau was voted to the All League team. Craig Melillo was named to the All-Star team. The team ended up with an overall record of 20-3.

Coming off a Tsongas Arena appearance last season, the wildcat girl's team played their way to the second round of the state tournament and an overall record of 15 and 7. The girls finished third in the Cape Ann League and second in the Nashoba Valley Tournament. The girl's had a huge home court victory over Stoneham High in the first round of the tournament and earned them the chance to face Swampscott. Although Swampscott won in the end, the team's final record could not be overlooked. This year's team was led by senior co-captains Alyssa Brown and Stephanie Sauve with significant contributions from fellow seniors Lauren Hitchins, Natalie Melkonian, and Brittany Winchell. Members of the Wilmington team earned individual Cape Ann honors as Amy Fahey made the All-Conference Team and was joined by Alyssa and Stephanie as All-Stars. With the recent success of the program, the future looks bright for the Lady Wildcats.

This year's varsity squad made school history, becoming the first boys team to win the Division 2 North Championship, earning the team a trip to the TD Bank North Garden for the State Championship game. Led by Captain Ernie Mello and Asst. Captain Eric Siegel, the top seeded Wildcats posted Tournament victories over Danvers and Peabody. The Division 2 North Championship game featured a heart stopping 4-3 shoot-out win over arch rival Tewksbury in front of a packed house at the Chelmsford Forum. The game featured a 47 save performance from goalie Mike Cabral, resulting in a game those in attendance will not soon forget.

The Cats leading scorer Ernie Mello and top goalie Mike Cabral were selected to participate in the All-Conference First Team. Forwards Eric Siegel and Mike Enwright along with defensemen Max Wilkins were voted League All-Stars. Coach Scanlon was recognized as the Cape Ann League Coach of the Year. Seniors also contributing to this memorable season included forwards Nick Robarge, Andrew Goossens, Tim Cushing, and Sean Fay and defensemen Jon Kincaid, Brian Svensson, and Corey Tobin.

The Girls Varsity Hockey team moved into a new division this season. Starting the year as strong as they could, the girls never gave up. The seniors, along with captains Colleen Magee and Marie Pescatore and co-captain Bridget Griffin, helped greatly as the team struggled through the season. Regardless of the final record, they did not let this team fall apart.

Parents, coaches, and captains supported the team immensely, helping the girls to keep a strong team in the end. The girls would like to recognize the penalty box for all of their hard work, time, and effort they put into making this a great team, and the underclass members will miss senior captains Colleen and Marie, two great captains and friends.

Whether you're in track for the love of the race or just in it to socialize for an hour after school, track is always a good time. Our very own Coach Cripps was coach of the year, training the distance crew with Coach Joe Martiniello who also did a great job with the sprinting kids. The track team went 8-1 in the regular season with over 20 kids who made it to the state class meet. This season certainly paved the way for the Spring Track team to go all the way this year. For those underclassmen participating in track next year, look forward to the SPL, the Circle of Doom, Silver Lake and filling the big shoes that we have left for you. Good Luck!

Girls Winter Track had a good turnout this year. There were plenty of athletes competing in the sprints, distance, jumps, relays, and shot put. Although the record may not show it, the team had a successful season. Led by Coach Thom Bradley and captains Kayla Hanson, Steph Baima, and Lorena Prinzivalli, the team really bonded and many girls are planning on participating in Spring Track. Good Luck to all!

The Wilmington Academic Decathlon competes with teams of students from high schools across the state in a series of ten academic events. These events cover Economics, Language and Literature, Mathematics, Music, Fine Arts and Social Science. Students are given awards based both on individual and team achievements. A unique aspect of the program is that each nine-member team must consist of three students each with "A", "B" and "C" grade point averages. Students may be in any grade and an unlimited number of alternatives may also compete.

Bread and Roses is an organization open to all students and faculty who want to help others in need. Once a month, the group collects canned goods, paper towels, desserts, cooked meals, and other non-perishable items. All of these donations are brought to Bread and Roses in Lawrence, Massachusetts where those in need may come to enjoy a good meal.

Supervised by Mr. Sundberg, members of the chess club compete against one another in intense games of strategy and wit. Members hone their chess skills each week, and some have shown dramatic improvement since the year started. Because members of the chess club have deemed chess to be a game of thinking, the Wilmington chess club has given itself the slogan "What's the hurry?" Games often last over an hour with this philosophy. The chess club has grown exponentially over the past year, and new members are always welcomed.

Club WHS (Wilmington Helping Services)

Advisor: Mrs. Lisa Lucia

Club WHS is the community service club of the high school. The club meets monthly and does service projects on a regular basis. Club WHS has a sub-division, known as the Cleaning Crew, that cleans classrooms regularly. The club often visits the Buzzell Senior Center across the street to spend time with the older generation of Wilmington, doing anything from making gingerbread houses around the holidays, to learning new techniques from a pool shark. For the members, Club WHS is a wonderful experience, each year forging new friendships and long lasting memories.

Concert Choir

Advisor: Mr. Jason Luciana

The members of the WHS Concert Choir are an extremely talented group of students who enjoy challenging vocal harmonies and performing all genres of music. Mr. Luciana works closely with all members of the choir, working on blending their voices and developing them to give the choir a very professional sound. Choir rehearses daily throughout the school-year preparing for their annual winter and spring concerts. The choir has also had the privilege of performing in venues such as St. John the Divine Cathedral in New York, and is looking forward to continuing in their success.

Dance Dance Revolution

Advisor: Mrs. Tara Ettinger

DDR is a club originally run by Angela Wang, Class of 2007. Taken over year by senior Edward Silva, the club maintains most of its unique qualities. With a handful of members, there is plenty of time for everyone to play their favorite four step game. Still played on a TV in room 201, the music draws teachers and students alike to come observe. We would like to thank everyone who supports our group and especially our advisor Mrs. Ettinger, for making the club possible. Stay cool.

CLUBS

DECA is an association of Marketing Students from around the country. The Wilmington High School chapter, restarted this school year, participated in business opportunities and competition including the North Atlantic Leadership Conference in Boston where students met with Celtics Team President to discuss Sports Management, as well as competed in district competition and state competition in business knowledge and role plays. Students who want a career in business describe the DECA experience as extremely fun and rewarding.

DECA
Advisor: Mrs. Krista Anderson

The members of the WHS Drama Club are dedicated students who love all aspects of the stage, from performing in the limelight to working on backstage crew. The Drama Club was excited to kick off this year's season with a musical production of Footloose! followed by this year's entry in the Massachusetts High School Drama Guild Festival, Antigone. Drama Club also hosts a sub-group called One Minute Too Many, the newly formed improv group. Members are working hard to raise money to further better the conditions of their performance space and can't wait until their next performance.

Advisor: Mr. Jason Luciana

The newly-founded Environmental Club kicked off the 2007-2008 school year by reinstating the plastic and glass recycling program started during the previous year. Composed of students dedicated to the protection and preservation of the environment, the club fundraised for its end of the year Earth Week event, during which the club added to the environmental beauty of the school grounds.

Expressions Literary Magazine

Advisor: Ms. Tammy Ross

Expressions is Wilmington High School's annual Art and Literary Magazine. Showcasing student art, photography, poetry, and fiction, the magazine celebrated its fifth year anniversary during the spring of 2008. All students interested in publication and production are invited to participate; members also help to organize the yearly WHS Talent Show. The Spring 2005 edition was recognized by the National Council of Teachers of English (NCTE) and received an "Excellent" rating—a feat Expressions hopes to repeat.

Foreign Language Club

Advisors: Mrs. Joanne Veliz and Ms. Terresa Pietro

The FLC gives students an opportunity to have cultural experiences close to home. Through food, films, games, crafts, related activities and field trips, the FLC allows students to further explore the knowledge they bring from their own foreign language classes and provides them with an introduction to other cultures as well. Each monthly meeting has a different country theme, which is chosen by the club members at the start of the year. The FLC also facilitates National Foreign Language Week festivities.

Gay Straight Alliance

Advisor: Mr. Jason Luciana

This year the Gay-Straight Alliance (GSA) worked hard to promote equality and tolerance throughout the school and town. With events like the Day of Silence, World AIDS Day, and the Transgender Day of Remembrance, students tried to promote awareness of the issues facing the entire generation as well as the GLBT (Gay, Lesbian, Bisexual, and Transgender) community. Now becoming a permanent fixture at WHS, the club made a lot of progress this year in presenting GSA issues to the community and hopes to continue this progress in the coming years.

CLUBS

The WHS Marching Band can be found everywhere from Lake Winnipesaukee for Band Camp in August, to Market Basket for the food drive before Thanksgiving. Although the regular schedule includes football game halftime shows during marching season and concerts throughout the rest of the year, the Band also marches in local parades, performs in Disney World, goes skiing, and contains the renowned Jazz Band and new Pep Band, which is in its second year and plays at basketball games. The band is also looking forward to getting new uniforms next year!

Advisor: Ms. Barbara Mette

Wilmington High School is a member of the New England Math League. Each month the members participate in highly competitive contests with other high schools throughout New England. The club is open to all students at every level.

Math League
Advisor: Mrs. Gayle Masse

Medical Careers Club provides students with an opportunity to pursue their interests in the fields of medicine and science. Through field trips and job shadowing experiences, students are able to learn more about their field of interest. Also, MCC, teamed with club WHS, coordinates many events with the Buzzell Senior Center, connecting the elderly and youth of the community. During the 2007-2008 school year, MCC continued its annual fundraiser for the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Fund, raising more money than ever before.

Medical Careers Club
Advisor: Mrs. Susan Rowe

Mentors

Advisor: Ms. Linda Peters

Over the summer the Mentor Leadership team worked to pair mentors with all incoming freshmen. After receiving training, mentors served as orientation leaders to acclimate the Class of 2011. In September, mentors and freshmen reconnected at the Ice Cream Social, where the mentors shared their personal experiences with WHS extracurricular activities. The mentors and freshmen also teamed up again in the Volleyball Pizza tournament which was very competitive! The freshmen were very lucky to have such a positive group of strong role-models to help ease their transition into the high school.

Mock Trial

Advisors: Mr. Mark Staffier and Ms. Tracey Kassin

The WHS Mock Trial team worked very hard in a very competitive season. This year the team faced off against Andover, Voyager's Incorporated and Dracut and was 1-2. The case revolved around Sexual Harassment in the workplace. Matt Williams, Chris Holland and Kevin Carter served as captains.

Model UN

Advisor: Mr. Matthew Hackett

Model UN gives students the opportunity to discover through simulation how the United Nations works to collectively promote world peace and cooperate on a variety of issues. The main focus of the club is to prepare to attend four or five conferences in which each student is assigned a country and a council of the UN which is debating a particularly important international current affair and must work to compromise and pass a resolution. Students who enjoy politics, world affairs, other cultures, debating, and compromise will love Model UN.

Based on the principles of leadership, scholarship, service, and character, the National Honor Society is composed of students who maintain an academic average of an 88 or above and are dedicated to extracurricular and service activities. During the 2007-2008 school year, NHS conducted a competitive, school-wide drive to collect items for Local Heroes, an organization dedicated to supporting the troops. NHS also hosted the Anton's Coat Drive and volunteered at other school functions.

Rotary Interact is a club focused on community service around Wilmington. Rotary gathers about twice a month to discuss projects the group has been given. Projects include anything from volunteering at the Buzzell Center to cleaning up around town. Some of our projects include the Rotarian Auction, Santa's Breakfast, and the Half Marathon that has taken place in Wilmington for the past three years. Led by Jack Cushing, this group hopes to make a difference in Wilmington with every year that passes.

SADD is a peer leadership group dedicated to raising awareness about the dangers of underage drinking, drug use, impaired driving and other risky behaviors. Members have done a great deal to educate the WHS community about the consequences of destructive choices. Over the course of the year, SADD has conducted an anti-smoking campaign, "Grim Reaper" day, an annual mock crash, seat belt safety surveys, and a drunk driving prevention program. A bullying prevention program created and performed by SADD members had a powerful effect on fifth graders at the West and North Intermediate Schools.

Students Against Destructive Decisions
Advisor: Mrs. Meghan Estrada

Science Club

Advisor: Mrs. Michelle Hooper

For those that wish to pursue science outside the classroom, this is the place to be. Students perform experiments of all kinds and engage in fascinating scientific discourse and debate. Projects have included catapults, rockets, hovercrafts, DNA extraction, and the creation of magnetic fields. In addition, the Science Club visits off-site scientific exhibits, which have included Body Worlds II and CSI: The Experience at the Museum of Science. The students have also enjoyed the presentations of a pathologist at the Lahey Clinic.

Ski Club

Advisor: Mr. Frank Birmingham

The Ski Club took several scheduled trips to Nashoba Valley this year, where skiers, snowboarders, and those wishing to become such were encouraged to get some exercise and have fun. At Nashoba, students could also hang out at a tubing spot and defrost at the Outlook restaurant before getting back on the slopes. Lessons and rentals were available for those not owning equipment, and a terrain park and racing strip were there for the more competitive and daring club members. Ski Club is for everyone craving a laid-back yet fun-filled trip after school. Club members always have a good time.

Soundscape

Advisor: Mr. Jason Luciana

Soundscape is in its fifth year of performance and is an audition-only a cappella group comprised of students who enjoy learning more about music and how to use their voices in new and exciting ways. Soundscape students rehearse after school twice a week in preparation for the many concerts they perform in during the year. Soundscape has been fortunate enough to work with professional groups such as Vote for Pedro and Ball in the House as well as St. John's Prep's a cappella group, Swingtown. Soundscape members enjoy having fun and being part of the quirky group that they have become over the past few years.

CLUBS

After its 2007 trip to Italy, the Strings Attached orchestra is preparing for its 2009 trip to France. During the 2007-2008 school year, the orchestra performed at the Buzzell Senior Center, the Wilmington Health Care Center, and the Woburn Country Club Heights. It also organized a drive for the Wilmington Food Pantry. This year, 27 Strings Seniors will graduate from WHS. Best of luck to them all!

The WHS Student Council is a leadership organization which plans events to generate school spirit and a sense of pride in what we do at WHS. The members of the Student Council want to make a difference in what is happening at WHS and want to initiate improvement in many aspects of the WHS community. The Student Council fosters positive relationships, a spirit of community, and tolerance both in and out of the school environment. The organization is also dedicated to the spirit of giving among the WHS community.

Student Council
Advisor: Ms. Linda Peters

The Student Representatives embody a small group of upperclassmen who meet twice a month to discuss student issues and to plan a presentation for each School Committee meeting. The reports include activities, events and school happenings. They are often asked to comment on school related issues during meetings so that School Committee members can gain a student perspective. This year's members include: Matt Williams, Kathryn Stone, Alyssa Brown, Ashley Coates and Nicholas Monteforte.

Wildcat News

Advisors: Mrs. Joyce Beckwith and Mrs. Marie Shack

This year's Staff includes Editors Scott Oglesby and Brendan Foley, Sports Editor Lou Cimaglia, Assistant Editors Ashley Bresnahan and Erica Savage and between 10 and 15 writers from all four classes. Mrs. Beckwith is the Editorial Advisor and Mrs. Shack is the Art Advisor. Four issues are published: October/December/ March and May.

Senior Class Officers

Advisors: Mrs. Tara Ettinger and Ms. Maureen O'Mara

The Senior class officers have had a very successful year raising funds for the Class of 2008. The four officers, Lauren O'Brien, Sarah Turner, Tom Barry and Louie Cimaglia, have combined their efforts with the prom advisory team to steer the class in a positive direction. The advisory team consists of Krista Murphy, Karen Nguyen, Korinne Ghafari, Lindsay Clark, and Peter Tummino. Thanks to the work of these nine students and the remarkable effort and patience of class advisors Mrs. Ettinger and Ms. O'Mara, the Senior Prom was a great success, as were the rest of the senior activities.

Advisors: Mrs. Michelle Hooper and Ms. Tracey Kassin

The Class of 2010 is represented by Katia Reilly (President), Kyle Bernardo (Vice-President), Caleb Rogers (Treasurer), Liam Gately (Secretary), Amanda Hollenbeck (Public Relations), Cole Carter (Club Liaison), Randi Davis (Community Liaison) and Dan Baima (Administrative Assistant). This year's focus has been on fundraising and charity work. The class co-sponsored three successful fundraisers- the Mr. and Ms. WHS Contest, Spring Fling and Talent Show and raised money for the ALS Association. Lastly, this year's group also began plans for the Junior Prom.

CLUBS

Thanks to the hard work and dedication of this year's editors and yearbook staff, the 2008 Hourglass Yearbook was a tremendous success. Editor-in-Chief Leah DiNatale, Events Editor Bethany Hanson, Clubs Editor Megan Keane, and Sports Editor Krista Murphy spent countless hours compiling write-ups and photographs for the many pages of this book. This year's Hourglass was also made possible thanks to the service and support of both Hilton Photography and Walsworth Publishing.

Advisor: Ms. Jennifer Fidler

The Class of 2009 had a productive year thanks to the hard work of class officers: Joe Cerbone, Nick Monteforte, Lee Joan Villafuerte, and Allison Yee, as well as the continuous support from the class advisors, Mrs. Martell and Ms. Smith and the determined efforts of the class representatives. The cookie sales, bake sale, prom fashion show, and Fuddruckers fundraiser were the highlights of the year's successful projects. The class worked hard to make their Junior Prom an enjoyable and memorable evening. The Class of 2009 officers are now preparing to make the upcoming senior year a truly memorable one.

Junior Class Officers
Advisors: Mrs. Dawn Martell and Ms. Susan Smith

The class officers of 2011, Cody Nielsen, Sean Woodbury, Heather Kealos and Dennis Murphy, have worked to make this year one that the freshman class will never forget. They have planned many fundraisers, including selling Candy Grams and hosting the Wilmington High School's first ever, Freshman Class Dance. Stay tuned for more fundraisers and activities from the Class of 2011.

RETIRING FACULTY

Graduating along with this year's senior class are two teachers, Ms. Susan Smith and Ms. Judith Nowak. The administration, faculty, and students of Wilmington High School would like to thank these two outstanding teachers for their many years of service to the town!

Ms. Smith has been a math teacher here in Wilmington for 35 years. Having previously taught at the Shawsheen, the West Intermediate, and the North Intermediate, Ms. Smith has worked at the high school for the past eight years. We all wish Ms. Smith the best for a happy and adventure-filled retirement.

Ms. Nowak has been teaching foreign language in Wilmington for 35 years. Having taught at the high school for the past fifteen years, Ms. Nowak has also taught at the West and North Intermediate Schools. Everyone here at WHS wishes her the best for her as she plans to spend more time with her family friends, enjoying her hobbies, and appreciating that she no longer has to respond to bells.

To Ms. Smith and Ms. Nowak,

Congratulations to you both on your retirement. We wish you both the best!

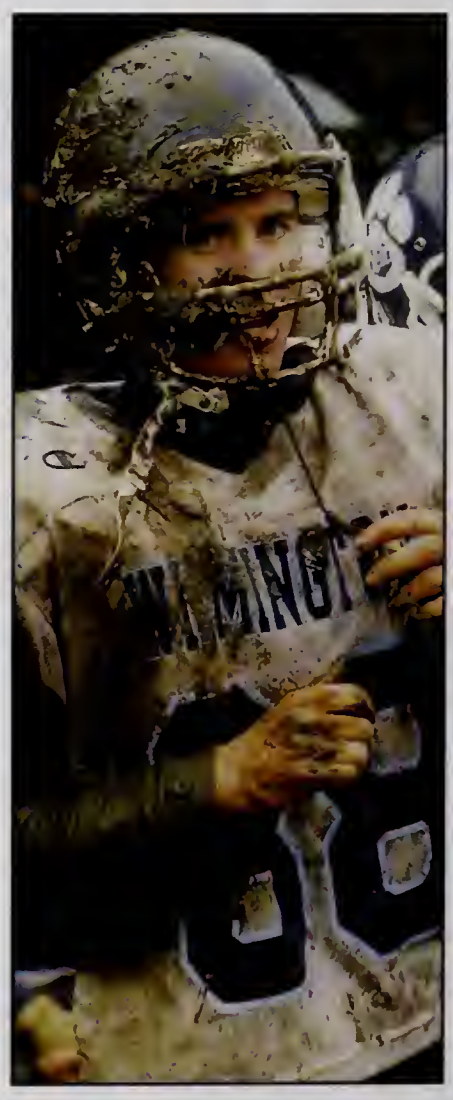
CONGRATULATIONS!
Love, Mom

Kevin,

It was apparent very early on that you were someone that would put your best effort into whatever challenge you took on. We are so proud of how hard you always work and your desire to always do your best. What makes us most proud is your kind heart. We are certain that wherever your future leads you, you will carry these wonderful qualities with you and success is sure to follow.

All our love,
Mom, Dad and Julia



Jenna,

You have reached a major milestone in your life, and we are so very proud of you. It is almost impossible to believe that you are graduating high school. Through the years, we have watched you grow from a beautiful child to a caring, generous, and wonderfully kind adult. We have never seen anyone display more heart than you, and we all love you so much. As you continue your journey through life, follow your dreams and know that you can be all that you hope to be and more. Continue to do the right thing and always hold your head high. If you ever need us, all you need do is turn around and we will be there.

Congratulations, and continue to make us proud.
Love,
